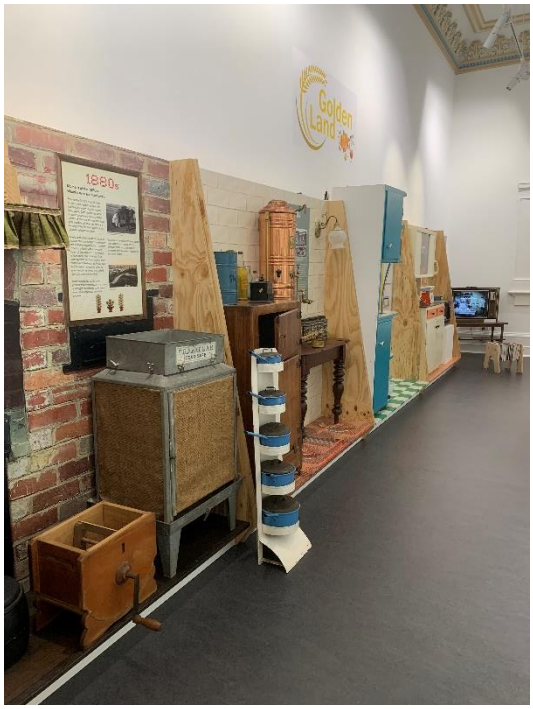
Floor plan of Golden Land exhibition:

Entrance Hall: As an extension of our exhibition space we have enhanced the walk way by the use of actual dried native grass, crops and invasive plants with identifications and interpretations

Kaurna: Showing that the foods used for thousands of years remain on these land as do the Kaurna Peoples.

100 Years of Kitchen Life and favourite recipe card feedback:

Four displays of generational kitchens; 1880's, 1920's, 1950's and 1980's. The layouts spark memories of times gone by. Visitors can fill in their favourite recipe and with some of these displayed and or answer our question with a bouncy ball.



Cooking Show on Loop:

'Cooking with Fran' is a audio visual production that celebrates a recipe for 'Coffee Cake' from the 1920's local 'Athens Cookery Book'. It is produced in the style of a 1950's cooking show. The actual booklet is mounted behind the TV. As you watch the show, you can choose to sit on actual recipe books.
